

Killis Melton's Ice Cream Crank Off and Festival Rules

Thank you for entering our 25th Annual Millis Kelton Ice Cream Crank Off and Festival! We are looking forward to having you and ensuring you have a great day at Chestnut Square. The Ice Cream Crank Off and Festival will be Saturday, July 4, 2020. Please arrive by 8:30 to start setting up. Check in will be at the Visitor's Center near the pavilion.

1. All contestants are required to bring 2 or more pre-cranked gallons of their entry icecream for public tasting. Additionally, one gallon of ice cream should be cranked on-site for judging. We don't want you to run out of your delicious ice cream.
2. Please note that tickets will be collected from the public for each tasting. All contestants must bring a helper to collect tickets while you serve your tastings.
3. Absolutely NO raw eggs or raw egg products may be used in your entry.
4. If nut products of any kind are an ingredient, please advise the judges and our staff will place a note on your freezer/station prior to the commencement of the tasting.
5. Numbered containers for your cranked sample will be filled out upon arrival.
6. As in the past, Chestnut Square is providing the ice and salt for your freezer. We will also provide power, but be sure to bring outside-rated extension cords as well as a tent, the pavilion only has room for 4 Crankers.
7. Once your ice cream is cranked and frozen, it needs to be put in the Bevel House freezer. It MUST be frozen in order to be judged. It MUST be in the freezer by 10:30 a.m.
8. Absolutely no samples are to be given out to the public until the tasting is opened to all ticketed tasters. You will be serving samples to ticketed tasters from 11:00-1:00 (Or until sold out). Chestnut Square will provide tasting cups and spoons. Please be sure to bring scoops.
9. Ice is to be dumped into the designated areas marked X on the map (next to the staff parking lot) PLEASE do not empty your ice, salt, and water onto the grass or flower beds.
10. Should you need anything, please contact a staff member.

Good luck and get Crankin'!
